About the Sweetser Training Institute

The Sweetser Training Institute is one of Maine's foremost resources for high quality professional training in the areas of mental health, substance use, and recovery best practice. We are committed to meeting the professional development needs of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, counselors, and other integrated health professionals.

Courses listed are subject to change

Most workshops are being scheduled for in-person and webinar attendance options. When registering on the website, you will need to select whether you would like to attend in-person or the webinar option. Please note that because of the COVID-19 precautions, the in-person attendance spaces have been significantly reduced and may fill up quickly. Should COVID-19 restrictions prevent us from being able to safely offer the in-person option, we will continue to hold the webinar option alone.

Ethical Issues & Intimate Partner Violence with LGBTQ Individuals $70

Amy Coha, MSW, LCSW

Friday, September 24, 2021, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Sargent Family Community Center, 24 Chapman Rd., Presque Isle & Cisco Webex Webinar

This workshop will explore the ethical issues in working with LGBTQ survivors of Intimate Partner Violence. Survivors of IPV/DV often face disbelief and discrimination from systems that may be their only option in seeking safety. This is especially true for LGBTQ survivors. This workshop will include assessment tools, trauma-informed interventions, safety planning, and resources. Participants are encouraged to share their expertise in their work with LGBTQ survivors.

The Cycle Starts Early (Domestic Violence & Teen Dating Violence) $110

Shayne Croy, LCSW, LADC and Jeanne Croy, LCSW, CCS

Thursday, September 30, 2021, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sweetser, 2 Pendleton Dr., Saco & Cisco Webex Webinar

This training will provide an overview of DV/IPV, its context in families, its effects on children and adolescents, and how this contributes to teen dating violence. In addition, the training will provide information on assessment, prevention, and intervention strategies.

Ethics in Child and Family Work $110

Jamie Leavitt, LCSW

Friday, October 1, 2021, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sweetser, 2 Pendleton Dr., Saco & Cisco Webex Webinar

This new training will answer some of the unique and challenging ethical questions and considerations that arise when working with children and families. Here are a few of the many topics that will be highlighted: managing the needs of the individual vs the family unit; confidentiality for the minor child; treatment types that fit for children; child welfare and mandated reporting; blended families with multiple caregivers, and multiple agendas for treatment. Don't miss this specialized training that highlights relevant and up to date guideposts for ethical decision making.

Friday, November 5, 2021, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sweetser, 329 Bath Rd., Brunswick

This workshop will explore the effective use of play therapy with children and families who have experienced trauma. It will provide participants with an understanding of trauma, brain responses, tools, and techniques to help clients successfully cope with difficult experiences, and will provide practical and strength-based hands-on techniques.

Treating Eating Disorders in a Weight-Biased World $70

Patrice Lockhart, MD

Friday, November 12, 2021, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Sweetser, 2 Pendleton Dr., Saco & Cisco Webex Webinar

“You’ve lost weight! You look terrific!” (So what was wrong with me before?) We’ve all heard it, we’ve all been on diets, and most of us know that they don’t work. Explore the mythology about weight and size, and how it affects our sense of self. Then learn about what eating disorder treatment looks like, and when someone you love might need it.

Communities Responding to Domestic Violence: Reaching Men Who Batter $110

Patricia Ledoux, LCPC-cc

Friday, November 12, 2021, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sweetser, 700 Mt. Hope Ave., Suite 650, Bangor & Cisco Webex Webinar

We will focus on clients who have committed domestic violence. Together we’ll explore: defining domestic violence, the clinician’s role, evidenced-based interventions and strategies, when to refer to additional services, and working in tandem with other intervening entities.

Yielding to Clients’ Needs: An Ethical Exploration $70

Jamie Leavitt, LCSW

Thursday, November 18, 2021, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Sweetser, 2 Pendleton Dr., Saco & Cisco Webex Webinar

We are ethically responsible and dedicated to “do no harm” to our clients and to keep their best interest first and foremost. In practice, that means minute to minute “micro-decisions” that impact our personal freedom of expression. This training will bring forth the valid and sometimes ethically challenging decisions that are made to ensure client well-being. We will have open discussions about use of social media, being with clients who have differing political views, sharing the community, and navigating multiple connections across environments. Special recognition will be given to all the ways we yield and allow our clients to go first.

Ethical Issues in Intimate Partner Violence & Child Custody $110

Amy Coha, MSW, LCSW

Friday, March 25, 2022, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sweetser, 329 Bath Rd., Brunswick & Cisco Webex Webinar

Intimate Partner Violence is one of the most challenging fields of practice for social workers/mental health providers because of the intersection with the criminal justice system. Although the best interests of the child requires the court to consider domestic violence, courts often view allegations of domestic violence during divorce and custody as a 'he said, she said' situation. Strategies and interventions in assisting survivors during this process will be explored. Participants are encouraged to share their expertise in their work with survivors during the court process before and after. The importance of self-care for both survivors and social workers/mental health providers will be discussed.

Sweetser, 2 Pendleton Dr., Saco & Cisco Webex Webinar

Cognitive behavioral therapy-enhanced (CBT-E) is the current transdiagnostic evidence-based treatment for adults struggling with eating disorders. This presentation will provide an introduction to CBT-E theory, a phase-by-phase outline of the CBT-E protocol, and an overview of specific clinical skills and procedures used in the treatment.

Social Worker Self-Care and Ethical Obligation $70
Wanda Anderson, LCSW and Rebecca Diggins, MSW, LCSW
Friday, May 6, 2022, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Sweetser, 700 Mt. Hope Ave., Suite 650, Bangor & Cisco Webex Webinar

This workshop will define Self-Care, Trauma Stewardship, and explore our ethical obligation to practice self-care. Self-care is not only critical to our professional self but a requirement of our NASW Code of Ethics. How do we care for others when caring for ourselves and the stressors of the world we live in is overwhelming? We will explore concrete strategies for self-care, work in small groups, and create individualized self-care plans for use now and in the future.

Clinical Workshops

Workshops marked with an asterisk (*) are focused on substance use disorders.

Advanced Techniques For Working with Complex Families $110

Grace Brace, LCSW

Friday, May 13, 2022, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sweetser, 329 Bath Rd., Brunswick

This workshop will utilize play therapy techniques to explore the dynamics within families who have experienced complex trauma. This advanced workshop will also provide techniques to work with families where there are challenges with attachment. Prerequisites Required: Please provide to the Training Institute, attendance certificates of prior attendance at both a trauma informed Play Therapy workshop and a trauma informed CBT workshop before registering for this session.

Fostering Resiliency in Supervision $70

Jeanne Croy, LCSW, CCS

Friday, May 20, 2022, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Sweetser, 2 Pendleton Dr., Saco & Cisco Webex Webinar

Research affirms that the only consistent measure of success in the outcomes of therapeutic treatment is the quality of the relationship between client and clinician and the client's perception of the relationship. Given that the counselor/client relationship can be viewed as a parallel process of the clinical supervision relationship, how can supervisors build relationships with supervisees in a way that fosters growth and resilience? This workshop will explore ways to build reflective capacity for social workers through supervision and leadership. We will explore intergenerational issues, boundaries, ethics, the impact of technology on the supervisory relationship, and the impact of administrative shifts within the field on ethical supervision.

Ethics in Child and Family Work $110
