Group Descriptions

Finding Your Path

Finding Your Path is a substance abuse recovery group designed for beginners and focused on finding your way through the pitfalls of early recovery.

Creativity Workshop

The creativity workshop will offer opportunities for people to create and relax! Painting, drawing, crocheting, and crafts, each week we'll meet to work on new projects.

Maine Can Work

Maine Can Work is a series of peer support workshops designed to assist people with a behavioral health diagnosis to find employment that works for them.

You're Not Alone (A.A.)

You're Not Alone is an open meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous focused on beginners and open to people suffering from any form of addiction, hosted at the SupportMe Peer Center.

General Support A

Our general support group is a place where individuals can come together to build community and connection by sharing our unique experiences with mental health, substance use challenges, or daily struggles.

Hearing Voices Network

Although at least 1 in 10 people hear voices, experience intrusive thoughts, see visions, feel tactile sensations, or have other unusual experiences, many choose not to talk about them. A Hearing Voices group is a place where people can meet to talk about their experiences without fear of judgment.

Performance for Peers

Creativity is one of the best tools for recovery; in this group, we'll work together on expressing ourselves and honing that very tool. Participants will begin with playing theater games and using vocal/movement warmups to open the channels that allow free expression.

Beyond the System (When Healing Causes Harm)

Beyond the System is a group for anyone who has struggled with receiving care. Whether it's medical, psychiatric, chiropractic, dental, or anything you've pursued, this is for you.

General Support B

This is an open general support group run by peer support specialists John Hirth and Steve Houchell. Please contact John for additional information at jhirth@sweetser.org

Community Meeting

The Community Meeting is a time for center participants to come together and discuss the center, it's direction, and what they'd like to see happen.

Alternatives to Suicide

In the Alternatives to Suicide approach, people are welcome to talk about anything, including wanting to die. No one will call the police, crisis, or other involuntary interventions.

Without a Prayer (Secular A.A.)

Without a Prayer is an open, non-religious meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous hosted at the SupportMe Peer Center. In keeping with A.A. tradition, we do not endorse or oppose any form of religion or atheism.

Queer Support Group

Queer Support is a support group for all lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, nonbinary, queer, intersex, asexual, two spirit, questioning, curious, and considering-the-possibilities people who are seeking community and the chance to talk and share space with others. Participants don't need to be out of the closet, have an established identity, or a diagnosed mental health/substance use issue to attend: just the desire to hold space together with other QT folks who share our common struggle to be ourselves in this society.

Community Game and Movie Day

Every Friday, all day long we play games and watch movies- come and join us, bring your favorites!
